Obituary

C.D.
7/11/16Rev. Harper Gray

After an illness of two months, Rev. S. Harper Gray. D.D. minister of Old St. Andrew's Church passed away Saturday afternoon at his late residence, 25 Linden Street. Rev. Dr. Gray came to Toronto as the successor of Rev. Dr. Milligan and was fast winning for himself the reputation of being one of the best preachers in the Presbyterian Church. He had during the time that he occupied the pulpit at Old St. Andrew's received several calls from Presbyterian colleges, but he preferred to remain with his flock and did not accept any of these calls. The late Dr. Gray was born in Kingston, Ont. in 1870. He received his High School education at Brampton and took his degree as bachelor of arts at Queen's University Kingston in 1891. He graduated in theology from Knox College in 1898. His first ministry was at Banff, Alberta. Later, he served at Dundas, Ont. After 11 years at Dundas he was called to Old St. Andrew's and came to Toronto in 1911. Since his installation here he has established a great reputation as an eloquent and a powerful speaker and as a kindly and well-loved minister. The degree of doctor of divinity was conferred upon him at the recent opening of the Knox College. He was taken ill two months ago with pneumonia. Rev. Dr. Gray is survived by a widow and three young sons.

Obituary

MRS. ROBERT GRAY

On Thursday, Mrs. Margaret A. Gray, beloved wife of Mr. Robert Gray of Mono, suddenly expired. Deceased was born in the township of Esquesing, near Georgetown, 78 years ago. Her marriage to Mr. Robt. Gray took place
55 years ago, her maiden name being Margaret Ann Barnes.
After her marriage she resides in Erin Township and Garafraxa, and for the past 43 years has lived on lot 18, con. 3, east Mono. A husband, four daughters and five sons are left to mourn her death.

OBITUARY

MRS. SAMUEL GRAY

Mrs. Samuel Gray, an old resident of the Orangeville district, passed away at her home on the east half of lot 1, con. 1, east, Mono township, on Wednesday, November 14th, at the ripe age of 82 years, 3 months and 11 days. Deceased, whose maiden name was Jane Thompson Widdis, was born and spent the early part of her life in the township of Chinguacousy, coming to Orangeville with her husband many years ago. ...

Her loss is mourned by her aged husband, one son, Dolson, of Orangeville, and two daughters Adeline, at home and Mrs. Philip St. Croix, Orangeville. ...

The pallbearers were four grandsons, Earl, Harold, Sam and Cecil G. Gray, Orangeville and Willie Speers, of Mayfield, and Gray Bradley of Victoria.

Drowned in Credit River

Brampton, June 12.—John Gray, aged 21, of Cheltenham, a former ward of the United church hostel at Norval, was drowned in the Credit river late yesterday afternoon. Unable to swim, Gray wandered out of his depth.

Girl Risks Life to Save Gray

Noticing Gray in difficulty Miss Vera Bartlett, 21, of 839 Bloor St. W., plunged into the river and swam to him. Panic-stricken he grabbed her shoulders and pulled her under the water, forcing her to fight free of him.

An acquaintance of Gray joined in attempting to rescue him and was also dragged under.

Mr. Bartlett, fully clothed, took a plank he found on the shore and swam to his daughter who had become exhausted in her struggles with Gray and lifted her on to the plank.

RISKS LIFE IN RIVER

When John Gray, 21, Cheltenham, got over his depth in the Credit river near Brampton yesterday, Miss Vera Bartlett, 21, 839 Bloor St. W. (Above), jumped into the river and attempted to save his life. In panic Gray almost dragged Miss Bartlett under the water, and the rescuer had to struggle to get herself clear.

Gray's companion was going down for the third time when Miss Bartlett reached out from the plank and grabbed him by the hair and pulled him to the bank.

With a number of friends Gray had come to bathe near W. Standing's farm. He was the only member of the party unable to swim. The body was recovered in a deep hole some minutes after the alarm was raised. Dr. R. A. Burns was summoned, but efforts at resuscitation were useless. Chief Andrew Herkes of Brampton and Provincial Officer T. H. Owen investigated.

George Gray
The funeral of the late George Gray took place at St. Paul's Anglican church, Norval, on Friday afternoon following a private service at his late home. The service was conducted by Rev. F. C. Jackson, assistant at Holy Trinity church, Toronto. He was assisted by Rev. W. G. Brook, Norval rector. Mr. Jackson delivered an inspiring address of comfort to the bereaved ones. The choir was in attendance and sang two hymns, "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "Abide With Me". As the cortege left the church, the Nunc Dimittis was chanted. Pallbearers were J. Slingsby, N. Cameron, H. Tinsdale, G. Currie, of Norval; and Messrs. Gray and Pulfer, of Toronto. Interment took place at Hillcrest cemetery, Norval.
